

Missing words – activity sheet

Use your braille handout to fill in the missing words

Practise with your first name:

in print

in braille

Three Friends

The rabbits had been on the sweet spring grasses for most of the afternoon, now it was time to return to the burrows and a nice warm bed of straw, which kept the last of the spring frosts at bay. Barry the, however, was just waking from a day of sleep. Badgers are creatures, which means they come out at night. As Barry yawned and stretched he could hear the hoot of Ollie the Ollie was Barry's good friend and at night they worked together finding each other tasty snacks, like and Tonight was a special night as Francis the fox was joining them. The three friends met under a low hazel tree just as the last of the day's sun set, bathing the countryside in a warm orange glow.